A New Pastor for Hebron

On Saturday 5th November, James Allan was ordained to the Christian ministry and inducted into the pastorate of Hebron Evangelical Church. James has been a teacher for the last 15 years, and was Deputy Head at St Teilo's Church-in-Wales High School in Cardiff before commencing his role as Pastor with us full-time in January. He joins us with his wife Esther, and their four children.

We were much encouraged by the service that took place. It was a chilly but beautiful autumn afternoon and the chapel was filled with sunlight and around 250 people. It was a stirring sound to hear so many voices singing God's praise. Dr Eryl Davies of the Heath Evangelical Church in Cardiff, Rev. Stephen Darby, pastor of Hope Church (Cefn Hengoed) and Rev. Roy Hamilton, the former pastor of Hebron all took part. Rev. Dan Peters of Newcastle preached from Mark's gospel and Philip Cushen, an elder at Hebron, gave a history of the call for a pastor.

Easter

The following recently appeared on the back of a Christian magazine:

He had no servants,
yet they called Him Master.

He had no degree,
yet they call Him Teacher.

He had no medicines,
yet they called Him Healer.

He had no army,
yet kings feared Him.

He won no military battles,
yet He conquered the world.

He committed no crime,
yet they crucified Him.

He was buried in a tomb,
yet He lives today.

It describes the life of Jesus Christ. What sets Jesus apart from any other figure of history is the empty tomb and the reality of the resurrection. The New Testament describes the stone in front of His tomb being rolled away. All could look in and see that the tomb was empty and that Jesus had risen. Hundreds of people claimed they saw the risen Christ.

You might not be a religious person, but has anything ever happened to you that has made you think? Maybe you once attended Chapel or Sunday School many years ago. Have you ever wondered if there was any value in what you heard? You might still attend Church – but it seems dull. Perhaps Christianity means nothing to you at all. You think of 'the church' only as a building for weddings and funerals. We believe the Christian message changes people. Why not consider it for yourself? Our services are simple and you are warmly invited to attend. Why not consider the significance of Jesus' death and resurrection this Easter?

Because of what Jesus did by his death and resurrection, God is willing to forgive all our wrong and to bring us to know Him. God, by His Holy Spirit will come to live within us. This is a friendship with God that lasts not only in life, but through death and into eternity. Heaven is not a reward; it is a gift – given to all who will trust and follow Jesus.
