How we use your data

We are collecting this information to enable the church to run these activities safely and ensure we can contact you or the contacts you have supplied in case of an emergency. Data Protection legislation allows us to process this information as we regard it as being in the church's legitimate interest. If you are unable to supply the information requested then we will be unable to accept your child at these activities.

This form will be kept in a securely locked room during the activities, to which only the event leaders will have access. If you have consented to being contacted about future activities that may be of interest, your name and contact details will also be kept electronically on a computer that is password protected. We will retain your details for the sole purpose of notifying you of such events.

We will NOT pass on this information to anyone else. You have the right to ask to see any information we hold about you, and to ask for this information to be corrected or deleted. If you wish to make such a request, or are concerned about the way your information is being handled please contact the pastor. If you are still unhappy you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioners Office.
